School Calendar Task Force

In a year, we hope to see the following progress on this strategic objective:

In a year we hope to complete the work started by the School Calendar Task Force. The task force was organized into sub committees responsible for research and discussion around various options related to the Bozeman School District Calendar.

PROGRESS SUMMARY

The task force met from October 2011 until April 2012. It was decided to reconvene the task force in the fall of 2012 to further discuss the research findings from subcommittees and explore opportunities related to optimizing the District school calendar. The School Calendar Task force accomplished the following in 2011-2012:

Created a vision statement through Best and Worst Outcomes.

Created research topics to explore issues around optimizing the school district calendar.

Created subcommittees to research and report findings on the topics list.

Committees reported on topics related to academic regression, school funding, Montana minimum aggregate school hours, and Saturday school.
